Grievance Procedure Policy

RATIONALE:

At St Joseph's School 'Grievance Procedures' are in place to deal with concerns, complaints, grievances and allegations of misconduct towards staff as well as complaints between workplace participants, bullying, discrimination and gender equity in the workplace. It also outlines procedures for student grievance.

It is only natural from time to time that concerns about what happens at school will arise. When this happens, we need to know the correct way to effectively have the concerns heard and acted upon.

Allegations of Misconduct

DEFINITION: Misconduct may be defined as conduct which is wrong, improper or unlawful. They types of conduct are not fixed; misconduct can take many forms. Misconduct may range from sexual, physical, psychological or emotional abuse to theft, abuse, assault or other types of improper or unprofessional conduct.

(SACCS - Procedures for dealing with Allegations of Misconduct, 2005)

Discrimination and Harassment

DEFINITION: Discrimination is making unlawful distinctions between individuals and groups on the basis of any of these attributes.

Age, lawful sexual activity, physical features, industrial activity, career status, disability, marital status, parental status, political belief, pregnancy, race, religious belief, sex, personal association with a person who is identified with reference to any of those listed. etc.

DEFINITION: Harassment is any behaviour which is unwelcome. Harassment has the effect of offending, humiliating or intimidating any person at whom it is directed. Harassment can involve the abuse of power. Harassment can be verbal, non-verbal and physical harassment.

Grievance Procedures for Students, Parents and Staff

At St Joseph's School we pride ourselves on maintaining positive relationships within the community to ensure that all children have the best chance of success. This means relationships between parents, teachers and students must be positive and regarded with extreme trust and honesty.

Grievance procedures in St Joseph's School are reliant upon the SACCS Policy statements listed in the References at the end of this document. These documents are found at :

Staff members, students and parents must treat each other with respect and integrity, and act to resolve concerns and conflicts promptly and effectively. The following guides for each group will be used at St Joseph's Parish School.

Students

When a conflict involving students occurs between two parties:

Students are encouraged to solve it themselves by:

Working with peers to identify the issue and plan for a successful outcome.

Considering personal ownership of the problem and determining what they could do differently.

Ignoring it and walking away.

Saying 'no' in an assertive manner

Telling the other person to ‘Stop!’

Using ‘I’ messages

If the problem cannot be solved, or is still causing concern, or if it is a complex problem, then the student will need to speak to their class teacher, the Principal, the community Counsellor or the Priest.

If needed, a meeting with all people concerned may be held and will result in a negotiated action plan. All parties will need to abide by the plan.

If non-resolution/reconciliation is reached, further meetings may be held. These may involve outside agencies.

See the attached flow chart. (Appendix 1)

Parents/Caregivers

The parent needs to talk about the problem with the person directly involved. Discuss the question or concern directly, stating the problem clearly and objectively. Seek to resolve it in a way that respects all the needs of those involved. The complaint needs to be specific (describe an incident and/or quote the words used). People are entitled to raise complaints with all parties involved and have the opportunity to be heard. All parties need to respect appropriate confidentiality. All complaints will be resolved in a non-threatening, respectful manner and in a safe and caring environment. Where appropriate, the parties will attempt to resolve the complaint informally.

Should the matter remain unresolved, the parties will seek to resolve the complaint by approaching the Principal/School Board Chairperson. The Principal/School Board Chairperson has the responsibility to follow an appropriate process of investigation and mediation at the school level with the parties directly involved.

If the complaint remains unresolved after intervention by the Principal/School Board Chairperson, then parties may take concerns to the Catholic Education Office, Pt Pire or Adelaide.
